

INDUSTRY EXPERIENCE

Analyst, OnPoint Analytics, Inc., 2021 – Present:

Jeremy is an Analyst at OnPoint Analytics. He performs research and summarizes market trends to develop economic arguments, applies statistical and econometric methods to financial and economic data, as well as write computer code to standardize complex datasets produced by parties to litigation. Jeremy earned a Bachelor of Business Administration Degree in Economics the Western Michigan University and a Master of Research Degree in Economics from Universitat de Barcelona.

EDUCATION

Universitat de Barcelona, Barcelona, ESP
Research M.S. Economics

Western Michigan University, Kalamazoo, MI
B.B.A. Economics | Summa Cum Laude

PRIOR EMPLOYMENT

Economic Research Associate | University of the Pacific | Stockton, CA | March 2020 - March 2021

- Collect data and create publication quality graphs, tables and, write-ups for county analysis of economic and social indicators
- Forecast demographic, household, and employment, and economic indicators forecasts, 40 years into the future, using regression, probability and shift-share analysis
- Conduct economic analysis in support of Center's grant and contract funded projects in the areas of transportation, housing, workforce development, forecasting and other related areas
- Automate processes using STATA, Tableau, Python and other software
- Supports planning and programming for external events and focus groups

Research Assistant | Hoover Institution | Stanford, CA | February 2017 – February 2019

- Extract data and structured information from published literature and other sources
- Assist in designing and evaluating phases of research projects and auditing the accuracy and validity of data entered in databases
- Conduct literature searches, and write literature summaries, requiring preliminary judgments after conceptual approach
- Build and organize data as requested by principal investigator or faculty; use common statistical programs, requiring the application of job control language in generating and organizing data
- Create advanced Excel and Stata charts and run regressions for and provide periodic briefs and analysis

- Set up systems for effective management of the flow of information and for easy accessing of data for reporting purposes

COMMUNITY BUILDING & OUTREACH

- Panel discussion member on community food procurement at the Emergent Community Conference
- Held discussions on racism, sexism and consent
- Community position held to resolve conflict and mediate issues between members
- Food procurement for a community of 30 people
- Participate in Second Life and the Prisoner Reentry Network, helping people released from prison to re-establish themselves in the outside world
- Assist others in their asylum paperwork and checking on the status of their citizenship

PUBLICATIONS

Hidden Debt, Hidden Deficits: 2017 Edition: How Pension Promises Are Consuming State and Local Budgets