

INDUSTRY EXPERIENCE

Research Analyst, OnPoint Analytics, Inc., 2022 – Present:

Noah is a Research Analyst at OnPoint Analytics. He assists in final expert report preparation by writing and reviewing report sections as well as analyze large datasets and extract information through graphical and statistical analysis. Noah earned a bachelor's degree in Economics from Allegheny College with a minor in Global Health Studies.

EDUCATION

Allegheny College, Meadville, PA

B.A. Economics

Minor: Global Health Studies | 2022

PRIOR EMPLOYMENT

Undergraduate Research Assistant | Allegheny College | Meadville, PA | May 2021 - May 2022

- Examined under professor, the industry claims and compliance on food labels building upon research conducted in 2018 and 2019
- Utilized institutional database called Aggregator, Google Scholar, and Research Gate to identify credible, peer-reviewed journal articles to compose a literature review
- Developed a comprehensive review of federal and state laws that influence the food supply chain and industry and apply knowledge to address possible biases in the investigation
- Extract and optimize 500 observations of raw data for analysis in STATA 17 SE
- Composed a 40-page comprehensive review of literature, legislation, and findings on the subject matter
- Illustrate data analysis and research conclusions at a College wide research symposium of professors and peers

Fellow | Bruce R. Thompson Center for Business and Economics | May 2019 – May 2022

- Moderated student and faculty lead discussions on the job and internship opportunities and the development of key professional skills
- Corresponded and invited distinguished guests and alumni to College to offer guest lectures.
- Develop and execute workshops for students to develop skills applicable to the workforce such as excel or interview tips
- Serve as a student representative in the hiring process of new associate professors for the department
- Assisted students in finding resources available to them as well as discussing the academics and course structure with prospective students

- Worked collaboratively with the College Health Agency to minimize the rates of COVID-19 during a global pandemic

Senior Representative | Bruce R. Thompson Center for Business and Economics | May 2019 – May 2022

- Interpreted Income Statement, Balance Sheet, and Cash Flow Statement of potential investments for the $250,000,000 endowment
- Formulated alongside the executive cabinet members and the committee members institutional capital investments using increment financing
- Annually evaluate current capital expenditures and depreciation
- Collaboratively spearheaded the annual and quarterly budgeting of the $75,000,000 operating budget and forecasted future processes using discounted cash flows

President | Allegheny College Student Government (ASG) | May 2021 – May 2022

- Streamlined communication and increased collaboration between the executive cabinet of the college and AGS cabinet and senate members
- Developed strategic relationships and partnerships with over 165 student-led organizations and local businesses
- Presented to the executive cabinet and the board of trustees on four occasions the status of the student body and investments of the organization
- Worked collaboratively with two other students to plan and execute a $300,000 concert
- Improved the dining experience by negotiating and implementing solutions with the CEO of Parkhurst dining

Director of the Treasury | Allegheny College Student Government (ASG) | October 2020 – May 2021

- During a global pandemic, audited and maximized financial security for ASG and partner organizations
- Supervised a $1,000,000 budget optimizing investments and spending while maintaining a positive cash flow ratio with respect to spending
- Spearheaded the Fund for the Advancement and Celebration of Culture (FACC), allocating 8% of ASG's annual budget towards celebrating culture, diversity, and inclusion
- Deliver impactful analysis and insights into the financial stability of ASG to the Board of Trustees

Attorney General | Allegheny College Student Government (ASG) | October 2020 – January 2021

- Served as a proxy while also serving as Director of the Treasury until a permanent replacement could be found
- Chaired the Ways and Means board ensuring justice and equality among students
- Coordinated the approval of five student organizations to receive funding and recognition
- Improved by amendment to the Constitution and By-laws of ASG